Amiri

Creating exceptional environments for people to enjoy.

About Us.

Introduction

Amiri is a privately owned contractor, established in 2005, with a strong reputation for delivering high-quality, innovative projects across the central south of England. Operating through two distinct divisions, Amiri Construction and Amiri Homes, we bring a collaborative, accessible and client-focused approach to every project.

Amiri Construction

At Amiri Construction, we deliver new-build and refurbishment projects with a consistent focus on quality, safety and precision. Our collaborative approach, innovative thinking and trusted industry reputation enable us to successfully deliver projects of varying scale and complexity across multiple sectors. Every scheme is approached with care and attention to detail, ensuring high-quality outcomes that exceed expectations. We take pride in creating environments that support communities, strengthen businesses and contribute to sustainable long-term growth.

Amiri Homes

At Amiri Homes, we deliver partnership-led and open market developments with a commitment to quality, design excellence and long-term value. Known for our straightforward, collaborative approach, we build strong relationships across the residential sector to ensure every development delivers lasting impact. Working closely with landowners, promoters, local authorities, registered housing providers and funders, we create places that generate genuine shared value. We take pride in delivering high-quality homes and sustainable communities that people are proud to call home.
